

Agenda

- Weebly Introduction (5 minutes)
- ◆ Create an Account (10 minutes)
- Basic Features of Weebly Exploration (25 minutes)
- Weebly Blog (5 minutes)
- Weebly use in the Classroom (10 minutes)
- Workshop Evaluation-Take Survey (5 minutes)

Introduction to Weebly

- Free Website Builder
- Can be used by Teachers & Students
- Easy drag and drop interface
- Websites can be customized
- Can add various multimedia elements
 - Audio
 - Video

Create an Account

- Go to the following website http://education.weebly.com/
- Watch video on creating a Weebly account.
- Use the "Weebly for Education Account Set-Up" Guide to help you.
- You can set up classes, watch the demos, or start building your website

Basic Features of Weebly

- A.Choose a Website Theme
- B.Add Pages or a Blog to your Website
- C.Choose Various Elements for your site
- D. Publish your web page

For help visit the following site http://pughtechnologyworkshop.weebly.com/

Why Blog with Weebly?

- Free and Easy Blog for your students.
- Monitor and moderate their post
- Inspires expression of ideas, writing, and improved communication skills.
- Promotes online publishing opportunities
- Helps students connect globally with other learners.

Weebly in the Classroom

- Possible Uses of Weebly
 - Create A Class Website or Webquest
 - Students create e-portfolios
 - Class Project
- Benefits of Weebly in the Classroom
 - Provide opportunities to publish online

Workshop Evaluation Please complete the Workshop Evaluation Survey

٥	ar est
Ref	erend	es:
Knight, Jim. (Corwin Press:	2007). Instruction Thousand Oaks.	nal coaching: A pa	artnership app	roach to improvin	ig instruction.
					a*a*
 				is.		